

Mission: To develop, energize, and activate community leaders in Johns Creek by providing insight into interaction with city, business and government executives to affect positive change. Personal and professional development training provided.

Program Days 8:00-3:00

August 25, 2019 Opening Retreat – Location: Chateau Elan
Meet at Perimeter Church 7:00am – Return
8:30pm

September 12, 2019 City Day – Location City Hall, 10700 Abbotts Bridge
Road, Suite 190
Lunch provided by the City

In this session participants will gain an understanding of how Johns Creek city government works and it's relationship to Fulton County Government. A historical perspective will be provided as well as the current state of the city and its goals and direction. The day will include a trolley tour throughout the community, a tour of the City Council Chamber, parks and recreation, traffic control center, and an interactive lesson of planning and communication.

October 10, 2019 Non-Profit Day/ Poverty Simulation/"Leadership Boundries"-Townsend Leadership
Location: Emory Johns Creek Hospital
Lunch provided by Lennys

This session introduces the group to the non-profit organizations in our city, services they provide, future challenges, changing trends, and needs assessment. NFCC will conduct a poverty simulation to better understand needs.

This provides an overview of possibilities for project selection.

The second half of the day will explore the dynamics of successful teams and assesses components of achieving results in groups.

November 8, 2018

Education Day/Six Essential Qualities that Determine your Success Workshop

Location: Mount Pisgah Christian High School
Lunch Provided by Mount Pisgah

Presenters including Fulton County Superintendent, Junior Achievement, Area Superintendent, School Board members. Home School Advocate, and Private School Head provide a better understanding of current issues facing all types of schooling. Federal, state, and local policies will be discussed. The class will have opportunity to tour a private school. The afternoon will provide personal leadership development with the Townsend Leadership experts facilitating and workshop on effective leadership qualities

December 13, 2018

Project Proposal/Sojourn Team Building

Location: Perimeter Church
Lunch provided by LJC at Perimeter Cafe

Leadership Johns Creek Board will attend and hear proposal for team projects to benefit city or local charities of their choice. Afternoon will be a fun outdoor team building holiday event including zip lining and leap and fall.

January 10, 2019

Healthcare Day/ Mental Health local Opioid Crisis & Suicide Discussion /Difficult Conversation Workshop

Location: Emory Hospital
Lunch provided by Panera Bread

This session will provide presentations on current community health related issues.
Drug addiction panel discussion with Summit Counseling, Juul specifics from the Ga Dept of Health. A tour of the hospital will be provided and a presentation from Emory Hospital CEO. The afternoon will consist of personal leadership training Townsend Leadership to train on How to Have Difficult Conversations.

February 14, 2019

Government Day

Meet at Perimeter Church parking lot for bus transportation to Atlanta a 7:00
Lunch planned for Agriculture Center, by Kenelys Photo with New Governor.

This day will allow the group to learn about the history of the capitol, how government works, current events, and how the court system in Atlanta works. We will tour the Georgia State Capitol, Fulton County Government Center, the Court House, the Fulton County Jail, and meet our North Fulton Delegation and Senate and House Representatives. Lynn Riley will provide an overview and group license plates provided.

March 14, 2019

Business Day/Diversity Day/Emotional Intelligence Workshop

Location: SAIA, Lunch TBD

The group will receive an overview of businesses in Johns Creek and the factors that influence economic development, jobs, sustaining a workforce, housing, plans for economic growth, public policy decision making, and industry civic involvement affects on our city. Speakers from members of various diverse communities will present on initiatives, inclusion, and challenges. Chandra Walker will conduct an Emotional Intelligence workshop and Greg Mooney will facilitate a public speaker training to prepare for graduation presentation.

The afternoon will provide a workshop on Emotional Intelligence.

April 11

Public Safety Day

Location: Johns Creek Fire Station #62

Lunch: Firehouse Subs

This session will expose participants to the procedures of the Fire and Rescue Department and the Police Department. Participation with first responders operations provided and active shooter training provided. The class will observe a

Municipal court in session, visit the K-9 training center and view a SWAT demonstration.

May 9, 2019

Program Conclusion/Graduation Day

Location: Atlanta Athletic Club

Practice group presentations for graduation.

Graduation Evening:

Goal is to have it very celebratory with all family members, employers, friends, and special guest appearance by Jeff Foxworthy,

* Projects are determined by the group and based on a needs assessment from the city and local charities.

Alumni from past 10 years of classes present at program days.